

JUDGE DOBSON'S LAST DAY.

D. P. GATES WILL QUALIFY AS CIRCUIT JUDGE MONDAY.

Peremptory Call of the Law Docket in Judge Dobson's Court Will Be Concluded To-day—Will Resume Practice of Law.

To-day is the last day Hon. Charles L. Dobson will sit as a judge of the circuit court of Jackson county. Yesterday he began the peremptory call of the law docket and will complete the call to-day. Trial judges must dispose of all motions for new trials, etc.

The January term of the circuit court begins January 11, when Judge Dobson will be succeeded by Hon. E. P. Gates, of Independence.

JUDGE C. L. DOBSON, Who Will Retire From the Circuit Court Bench.

Judge Dobson has been a member of the Jackson county circuit bench for the past three years. He was appointed by Governor Stone to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Judge James Gibson. He is one of the hardest working lawyers and judges at the Jackson county bar and has in reality impaired his never very robust health by his arduous work. No judge stands higher with the bar than does Judge Dobson, who will devote himself to the general practice of the law.

Yesterday Judge Dobson disposed of a great many motions. He overruled motions for new trials in the divorce case of Antonio Redondo against Anna Redondo and in the case of Florence Moore against C. M. Carder, wherein the plaintiff secured a verdict for $5,000. He also overruled a motion for a new trial in the case of the Pullman Palace Car Company, wherein the company secured a verdict for $400 for the loss of a valuable gold watch.

HON. EDWARD P. GATES, Who Will Succeed Hon. C. L. Dobson as Judge of the Circuit Court.

and chain. The case was then dismissed at the company's cost, as the property has been found in St. Louis and returned.

Judge Dobson will occupy offices in the New England building.

Judge Gates will qualify Monday morning.

All the recently elected county officers will take their offices to-morrow. Frank M. Love will succeed W. F. Jamison as prosecuting attorney; R. S. Stone succeeds J. P. O'Neill as sheriff; T. F. Brady succeeds John O. Capelle as treasurer; Judges Marsh and Christie succeed Judges Smith and Lattimer as county judges; Sam H. Chiles succeeds J. B. Keshler as marshal; C. J. Bower succeeds J. W. Campbell as assessor; J. W. McCarty as collector; T. J. Seehorn as public administrator and T. D. Bedford as coroner succeed themselves.

NEED LONG MEMORIES.

Suit Wherein Most of the Witnesses Are Now in Advanced Years.

The condemnation damage case of Milton Tootle, Jr., and others against the Kansas City &amp; Southern Railway Company for the value of land taken under condemnation proceedings, was begun in Judge Slover's court yesterday.

The suit is interesting from the fact that the witnesses are mostly men who had to be in advanced years to know of the facts pertinent to the case.

The Tootle heirs, three or four in number, claim they have never been paid for the land taken by the road southeast of the city. About $5,000 is involved in the suit. W. H. Lucas and J. McD. Trimble are the opposing counsel.

Jury Disagreed.

The jury in the $5,000 damage case of Mrs. Catherine Fitzpatrick against the Metropolitan Street Railway Company reported to Judge Slover yesterday that it could not agree, and was discharged. Mrs. Fitzpatrick was hurt June 21, 1911, while leaving a car at Independence and Garfield avenues.

Temporary Injunction Granted.

Judge Scarratt yesterday granted a temporary injunction restraining J. H. and J. C. Rieger from taking possession of certain property belonging to J. H. L. Faben which had been sold under deed of trust.

An Ovation for Pastor Brown.

Kalamazoo, Mich., Dec. 30.—The Rev. E. O. Brown, late of San Francisco, was accorded a very warm welcome here, his old home. The Pastor Congregational church, where he preached morning and evening, was crowded, and the greeting he received at the close of the service was somewhat like an ovation.

Fort Scott Paper Mill Closes.

Fort Scott, Kas., Dec. 30.—(Special.) The Fort Scott paper mill, which has been running day and night, closed down last night. The closing is supposed to be due to the pendency of several law suits affecting the property of twenty-five men are thrown out of employment.

Store Closed for Two Days.

The grocery store of M. Quinn, 549-551 Main street, will remain closed to-day and to-morrow on account of death in Mr. Quinn's family. The store will be open Saturday morning.

PROFESSOR BERRY'S TRIAL.

Defendant Denies That He Was Unnecessarily Severe in Inflicting Punishment.

The case of Professor William H. Berry, principal of the Kensington school, who is charged with assaulting Willie Knedler, a 12-year-old pupil living 1830 Myrtle avenue, was resumed in Justice Joyce's court yesterday. The testimony for the defense was heard, although it was not finished, and several more of Professor Berry's witnesses will be examined this afternoon. The defendant was placed on the stand to testify in his own behalf and denied that he had punished the boy as severely as represented in the evidence for the state. He admitted that he punished Willie Knedler for asking where the spelling lesson was, and stated that he did not tell the boy to "shut up" but simply said "hush," as he was interrupting him.

During the trial there were several pupils and teachers from the Kensington school examined in regard to the reputation of Willie Knedler and Professor Berry, and their testimony differed in some respects. Miss Jennie Howell, who has been a teacher under Professor Berry for four years, testified that she had heard from other teachers that Willie Knedler was headstrong and unruly, but the other witnesses stated that they had never heard anything against him. Several of the witnesses examined in regard to the reputation which Professor Berry bears among the parents of the Kensington school pupils said that he was well liked and no complaint had ever been heard against him. The remaining evidence will be given to-day and the case will probably be disposed of.

Attachments Run.

A. Friedlander &amp; Co., of New York, yesterday filed an attachment for $30,700 against Charles A. McAdow, a milliner, at 1022 Main street.

Wallace &amp; Wallace yesterday ran an attachment for $500 on the Western Paper Bag Company, for services rendered as attorneys in the litigation between the defendant company and the Benedict Paper Company.

County Court.

The county court yesterday ordered Evans sent to the poor farm.

STEPHENS MAY COME.

Rumor That the Governor-elect Will Confer With Local Democratic Politicians.

It was rumored yesterday that Governor-elect Lon Stephens would visit Kansas City to-morrow to confer with local Democratic politicians over the coming distribution of the state.

The rumor was not generally accepted, as it was said he would be certain to stay in Jefferson City and attend the reception given by Governor Stone. It is claimed it would be a breach of etiquette for the governor-elect to absent himself from the reception to discuss politics.

A CHANCE TO BET.

A Beer Wagon Driver Will Wager $50 That He Has an Extraordinary Eating Capacity.

Joe Henderson, who weighs 312 pounds, and drives a beer wagon for Joe Her, the brewer, is out with a proposition to wager $50 that he can eat a six pound turkey each day for thirty consecutive days. His backer is "Jimmy" Flanagan, a saloonkeeper at Ninth and State line, who feels certain his man can win the bet.

BUSINESS AND FUN.

The Members of the Board of Trade Will Combine Both To-day.

To-day at 11 o'clock the board of trade will nominate officers for the election that will be held on January 5. At 2 o'clock the closing year will begin and will last until the programme will have been given in full. A vaudeville bill and an old-fashioned "huking bee" will be given, together with many specialties, to the members of the board of trade.

Half of the exchange hall has been curtailed off for the performers, and the remainder and gallery reserved for spectators. After all the corn has been husked, the huskers will be joined by country lasses and all join in an old-time cornfield dance. The curtain rises at 2 o'clock. Tickets can be had of Secretary Chace.

Navajo Blankets.

C. W. Riggs can be found at 74 Locust street, where he has a few blankets on sale.

MUSIC AND THE DRAMA.

The Coates will have a New Year's attraction in "The Arabian Nights," one of Sydney Grundy's most delightful comedies, which is new to the local stage but is well known through its long run at Daly's. It will be presented by a company headed by Miss Louise Demmon, well known in Kansas City through her many creditable appearances in emotional plays and popular comedies.

Among the dramas presented at the Ninth Street theatre, one of the strongest is "Human Hearts" by Hal Reid, with the author and his talented wife, Bertha Belle Westbrooke, in the cast. The same attraction will return next week, opening with the Sunday matinee. The play is a well constructed drama, with several very interesting characterizations.

The usual Thursday matinee will be given this afternoon at the Grand, where "A Temperance Town" is playing.

The Broadway Comedians in "Town Topics," a brand new farce comedy, interpreted by a number of time-tried favorites, will be the attraction at the Grand opera house for next week. "Town Topics" is an entertainment in three acts, devoted entirely to laugh-making purposes, and makes no other claim for popular appeal.

The company includes William Kellar, William H. Mack, John Queen, James Tenbrook, Phil Ott, Joseph Harrington, William Nelson, Frank Caverly, M. Miller, Beatrice Norman, Nellie Bennett, Lillian Heckler, Luella Miller, Elsie Nugent.
